

Trump's first 100 days

A quick guide to the pro-life actions from President Trump's first 100 days in office

Enforcing the Hyde Amendment

Signed an Executive Order to end the use of federal taxpayer dollars to fund or promote elective abortion.

This reversed Biden-era orders in violation of the Hyde amendment. Executive Order 14076 protected unlimited abortions with severe punishments for violations. Executive Order 14079 recategorized abortion as “health care.”

Ending Federal Funding of Abortion Overseas

Signed a Presidential Memorandum reinstating the Mexico City Policy to stop the use of federal taxpayer dollars for abortion overseas.

This reversed Biden-era policy and reinstates the President's 2017 policy.

Working to Stop the Federal Funding of Abortion

Stopped federal funds from being used to reimburse travel expenses for abortions by the Department of Defense.

Stopped the Department of Veterans Affairs from allowing VA hospitals to perform abortions.

Stopped the Department of Health and Human Services from paying for abortions for those who entered the country illegally.

March for Life Support

The first president to attend the March for Life in person during his first administration.

In 2025 the president addressed the March via video and Vice President Vance addressed the March in person.

Protecting Pro-Life States and People

Restored Millions in Title X Funding to Oklahoma and Tennessee – two states previously cut off under the Biden administration for refusing to provide abortion referrals.

Pardoned 23 pro-life activists who were unjustly accused of violating the FACE act.

Title X Funding on Hold to Planned Parenthood Affiliates

According to an HHS spokesperson, this is “to ensure these entities are in full compliance with Federal law and applicable grant terms, and to ensure responsible stewardship of taxpayer dollars.”

Supporting Pro-Life Legislation

The White House applauded the House of Representatives for its passing of H.R. 21, the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act

His proposed Big Beautiful Bill will defund forced abortion and remove coverage of abortion from the Affordable Care Act
